16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

17 JULY 2022

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The book of GENESIS 18:1-10

Abraham and Sarah (our parents in faith) give hospitality and fine food to 3 'strangers'- God's presence is discerned

PSALM 14

Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain?
Those who walk without fault;
those who act with justice
and speak the truth from their heart;
those who do not slander with their tongue.

Those who do no wrong to their kindred,
who cast no slur on their neighbours,
who hold the godless in disdain,
but honour those who fear the Lord.

Those who keep their word, come what may,
who take no interest on a loan accept no bribes against the innocent.
Such people will stand firm for ever.

LETTER TO COLOSSIANS 1:24-28

Our sharing in both Christ's sufferings and His glory

GOSPEL - LUKE 10:38-42

Martha and Mary welcome the Lord into their home - hospitality, food, listening

TWO FOODS

Two types of food were on offer on this afternoon visit of friends...the food of Martha and the food of Jesus' word. We need time to hear the word of God. It is a principal way to keep our faith strong.

valuing the word of God every day will bring our faith into action. And our service of God will make more sense of scripture.

The visit of Jesus went right when the right food was put on the table at the right time, and that food was the word of God. Other food might come later.

Mary's faith grew as she listened, and this would show itself later in action. Maybe Martha's activity would bring her to hear the word of God in a new way?

Lord, help me to listen well to your word, and to cry for help from any of your people.
