Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

23 June, 2024

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The book of Job 38:1, 8-11

The Sea and its Storms -

God masters everything

PSALM 106

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.

These have seen the Lord's deeds,

the wonders he does in the deep.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale,

tossing the waves of the sea

up to heaven and back into the deep;

their soul melted away in their distress.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.

He stilled the storm to a whisper:

all the waves of the sea were hushed.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.

Let them thank the Lord for his love,

the wonders he does for his people.

2nd letter to Corinthians 5:14-17

Life centred on the Dead

and Risen Christ

MARK 4:35-41

Have you still no faith?

- why are you afraid

The storm at sea offers the perfect metaphor for expressing our doubts about faith.

The power of nature can leave us feeling utterly insignificant;

we are powerless and totally at the mercy of the elements.

So too life can appear incredibly hard because of illness, bereavement, broken relationships and shattered dreams.

At times the sailing in a small boat, on a dark night, into the eye of a storm, perfectly describes how we are.

At such times Jesus invites us to trust and it is only in doing that we learn how.
